Itinerary Details

Day 1: Delhi Arrival

Arrive in Delhi, where you will be greeted by our representative and transferred to the hotel (check-in time 1300 hrs). Delhi, a city that has served as the seat of power for several empires over the past millennium, has been destroyed and rebuilt numerous times. It is a blend of two distinct cultural legacies—Old Delhi, once the capital of Islamic India, with its maze of narrow lanes, crumbling havelis, and grand mosques, and New Delhi, a meticulously planned city created during the British Raj.

Overnight in The Suryaa / Crowne Plaza New Delhi Okhla (or similar)

Day 2: Delhi (B)

After breakfast, begin your Delhi sightseeing tour, starting with a visit to the Red Fort (from outside). This iconic Mughal citadel, built by Emperor Shah Jahan in 1638, is a symbol of Mughal grandeur, with impressive red sandstone walls and historical buildings inside. Next, enjoy a Rickshaw Ride through the bustling streets of Chandni Chowk, giving you a glimpse of Old Delhi's vibrant culture. Visit the Jama Masjid, India's largest mosque, known for its magnificent architecture and vast courtyard. Continue to Raj Ghat, the memorial dedicated to Mahatma Gandhi, marking the site of his cremation. Then, visit Gurudwara Bangla Sahib, an important Sikh shrine, followed by a photo stop at the President House, the official residence of the President of India. Drive past notable government buildings, including the Parliament House and Rashtrapati Bhawan. End the tour with a visit to Humayun's Tomb, a stunning example of Mughal architecture.

Overnight in The Suryaa (or similar)

Day 3: Delhi to Manvar (B/ D)

After breakfast, transfer to Delhi airport for your flight to Jodhpur. Upon arrival, drive to Manvar, a desert retreat nestled in Rajasthan's Thar Desert between Jodhpur, Jaisalmer, and Bikaner. Offering a glimpse into rural desert life, Manvar is a peaceful escape where visitors can witness traditional culture and the resilience of desert communities. After arriving at the desert camp, enjoy a camel ride through the dunes, gaining a unique perspective of the arid landscape and its folklore. Later, savor a traditional dinner under the stars at the camp.

Overnight in MANVÂR Sevan The Desert Camp (or similar)

Day 4: Manvar to Jodhpur (B)

This morning, embark on an open-air jeep safari to explore traditional desert villages, learning about the tribal Bishnoi people and their rich traditions. Observe wildlife such as chinkara, Nilgai, and peafowl, while witnessing local life with camels used for agriculture and villagers in colorful attire. Visit a village house and see artisans like potters and blacksmiths at work. After lunch, drive to Jodhpur, the "Blue City," founded in 1459 CE, known for its vibrant culture and historic monuments. On arrival, visit Mehrangarh Fort, one of India's largest forts, with its grand palaces, ornate halls, and impressive displays of royal artifacts. Later, enjoy a 2-hour walk through the old city, exploring sites like Chandpole Gate, Kunj Bihari Ji, Toorji Ka Jhalra, and the bustling Sardar Market.

Overnight in Ajit Bhawan (or similar)

Validity Period: April 2026 to March 2027

Day 5: Jodhpur to Udaipur (B)

After breakfast, drive to Udaipur with a stop en route to visit the renowned Ranakpur Jain Temple. Built in the 15th century and considered one of Jainism's most sacred sites, the temple is famed for its intricate architecture, featuring 29 halls and 1,444 uniquely carved pillars, each distinct in design. After exploring the temple, continue the scenic journey to Udaipur, the "City of Lakes," founded in 1559 by Maharana Udai Singh. Nestled along Lake Pichola, Udaipur is known for its palaces, temples, havelis, and tranquil natural beauty. On arrival, transfer to the hotel.

Overnight in Fateh Niwas (or similar)

Day 6: Udaipur (B)

After breakfast, explore the majestic City Palace overlooking Lake Pichola. Originally built by Maharana Udai Singh and expanded by his successors, the palace complex maintains architectural harmony despite centuries of additions. Entry begins at the Hathi Pol (Elephant Gate) and proceeds through the Bari Pol and Tripolia, where maharajas were once ceremonially weighed in gold and silver. Later, visit the Crystal Gallery within Fateh Prakash Palace, home to the world's largest private crystal collection, ordered in 1877 but unveiled only in 1994. In the late afternoon, enjoy a serene boat ride on Lake Pichola, taking in views of the city's historic monuments, palaces, and scenic surroundings.

Overnight in Fateh Niwas (or similar)

Day 7: Udaipur to Deogarh (B)

After breakfast, drive to Deogarh, the former residence of the Chundawat clan's chiefs, and home to Deogarh Mahal, a 17th-century palace now converted into a heritage hotel. Located atop a hill, the palace offers stunning views of the Aravali range and surrounding lakes. Upon arrival, check-in at the hotel. In the afternoon, enjoy a walk through Deogarh village, where you can observe the daily activities of locals, including women drawing water from the well, washing clothes, and carrying water in clay pots. Visit the village market, where you can shop for local trinkets.

Overnight in Deogarh Mahal (or similar)

Day 8: Deogarh (B)

After a leisurely breakfast, enjoy the Phulad Train Ride, a journey on a local meter-gauge train through the mountainous Ghat section. Known for its panoramic views, scrub jungle, hills, tunnels, and high bridges, this ride offers a glimpse into authentic rural life, with opportunities to interact with villagers. While traveling, you'll often spot monkeys descending from the trees. In the afternoon, embark on a Rural Ramble, a scenic drive through pastoral landscapes where locals tend to their fields and cattle. Visit a cave temple dedicated to Lord Shiva and enjoy a panoramic view of the surroundings. The drive ends at a lakeside, where you can relax and enjoy refreshments while watching migratory birds and small animals, with a beautiful sunset as the backdrop.

Overnight in Deogarh Mahal (or similar)

Day 9: Deogarh to Jaipur (B)

After breakfast, drive to Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan, known as the "Pink City" for its distinct pink-colored buildings. Upon arrival, transfer to the hotel. In the evening, enjoy a cooking demonstration with a local family, where you will learn about Indian spices and how they are used to prepare flavorful curries. Afterward, share a dinner with the family and gain insights into Indian culture and lifestyle.

Overnight in Alsisar Haveli (or similar)

Validity Period: April 2026 to March 2027

Day 10: Jaipur (B)

Today, start with a visit to the local "milk market" (Doodh Mandi) early in the morning, where traditional milk sellers in white dhoti and kurta gather to sell milk collected from nearby villages. Next, explore Jaipur, beginning with Amber Fort, a majestic blend of Hindu and Mughal architecture, accessible by jeep. Built in 1592 and declared a UNESCO World Heritage site, the fort is known for its stunning red sandstone and white marble structure, intricate carvings, and mirror work. Then, enjoy a photo stop at Hawa Mahal, a five-story palace with 953 windows designed for the royal women to observe the city. Experience a Pink Rickshaw ride through Jaipur's Old City, passing historic sites and bustling bazaars, and enjoy a cup of tea at a popular chai shop. End the day with a Bollywood movie at Raj Mandir.

Overnight in Alsisar Haveli (or similar)

Day 11: Jaipur to Ranthambore (B/ D)

After breakfast, visit Jantar Mantar, an impressive collection of astronomical instruments built by Maharaja Jai Singh II between 1727 and 1734. The Jaipur observatory, the largest and best preserved of five such facilities, is a UNESCO World Heritage site, showcasing the astronomical expertise of the Mughal period. Later, drive to Ranthambore, home to one of North India's largest national parks. Covering 392 square kilometers, the park is famous for its wildlife, including leopards, hyenas, sambars, and its pride of tigers. Upon arrival, check in at the hotel and enjoy dinner.

Overnight in Ranthambhore Kothi (or similar)

Day 12: Ranthambore (B/ D)

Enjoy morning and afternoon jeep safaris in Ranthambore National Park, a rewarding experience for both wildlife enthusiasts and nature lovers. Surrounded by the Aravali hills, the park is home to a variety of fascinating species, including leopards, striped hyenas, chitals, chinkaras, sambars, langurs, civets, and sloth bears. However, the park is most renowned for its tigers, which roam freely in their natural habitat. After the safari, return to the hotel for dinner.

Overnight in Ranthambhore Kothi (or similar)

Day 13: Ranthambore to Agra (B)

After breakfast, drive to Agra with a stop for a countryside excursion that includes a ride on a Jugaad, or "Village Mercedes." This unique local transport takes you through fields of wheat, mustard, coriander, and chilies to Gothdi village, where you may meet warmly dressed villagers, visit homes, and witness their daily life - an ideal moment for photos.

Continue to Agra, a historic city on the banks of the Yamuna River, best known as home to the Taj Mahal, one of the Seven Wonders of the World. Once a Mughal capital, Agra is filled with architectural marvels including forts, mausoleums, and palaces that reflect the grandeur of the empire. On arrival, transfer to your hotel and enjoy a farewell dinner.

Overnight in Grand Mercure Agra (or similar)

Validity Period: April 2026 to March 2027

Day 14: Agra to Delhi Departure (B)

Start your day with a sunrise visit to the Taj Mahal, when the early light bathes the iconic monument in a golden glow, creating a magical atmosphere. This serene time offers a unique opportunity to enjoy the beauty of this symbol of eternal love with minimal crowds. Afterward, return to the hotel for breakfast before checking out. Next, visit Agra Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and former Mughal imperial residence. After exploring the fort, drive to Delhi, and transfer to the airport for your onward journey.
